

Quelhas

2025, Carlos Santos, Alfie Davies

The game is played on a 10x10 board initially empty.

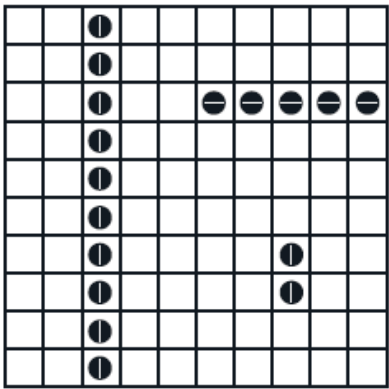

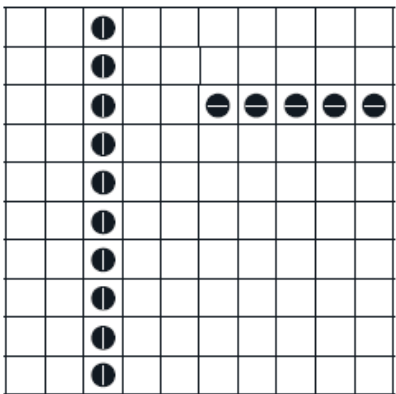

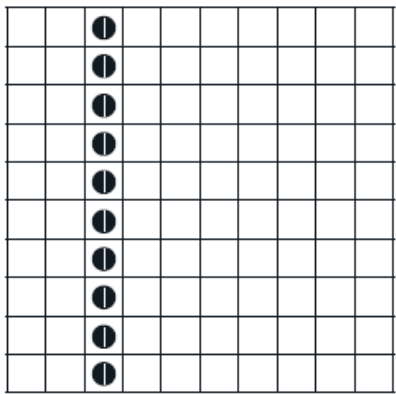

Rules.

There are two players: Horizontal and Vertical.

On his turn, the player places a line of two or more stones over adjacent empty squares. Horizontal places a horizontal line, while Vertical places a vertical line.

There is the pie rule: after the first move, the second player can switch sides.

Goal. The player unable to move wins the game.

an example of the first three moves